

Maine Adult Education Summer Academy
June 25-27, 2008
Diamond Building, Colby College, Waterville ME

EARLY-BIRD REGISTRATION

The Academy is designed for program administrators and those aspiring to those roles as well as instructors and support staff in Maine Adult Education and our collaborating partners. Colby provides a wonderful setting to learn, relax and reflect. There will be three full days of programming with a special emphasis on instructors on Friday, June 27. There will be a Learner Advocacy Training on Friday, June 27 with all participant costs, including registration and meals, covered by MAEA's Advocacy Grant.

A schedule of sessions and event brochure will be available in early May. There are many exciting new topics and this is shaping up as a tremendous professional development opportunity. The Early-bird Registration is designed for programs wishing to commit funds out of the FY2008 budget. Please contact the MAEA office, 875-2722 with any questions.

Registration Fee: $30 per day (Special Price for 3 days - $75)

Meals (Lunch and 2 Breaks): $15 per day

(Dinner is available in the dining center for $12.50)

Dorm Rooms: $46 per person per night, single rooms, shared bath, includes breakfast and all recreation facilities.

There may be an optional catered dinner on Thursday – details will be included in the brochure and final registration form. Please check below if this would be something you would be likely to attend. Cost is likely to be $15-20 pp.
